Minister James E. Tabron Biography

Minister James E. Taybron, a native of Bailey, North Carolina, is the son of the late Milton E. Stone and Mrs. Elmer T. and Wilbert Blackwell.

He accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age. He was baptized as a member of Jones Hill Missionary Baptist Church by the late Reverend G. M. Giles in September of 1973. During his service at Jones Hill, he worked as both youth and teen Sunday School Teacher. He served as Assistant Sunday School Superintendant. He also sung in various choirs of the church.

In 1994 under the leadership of Reverend Kintchen Williams he became a junior Deacon and was ordained in 1997.

In 2000 he moved his membership to Union Hill Missionary Baptist Church so that his family might all belong and worship at the same church. Under the leadership of Reverend Jeremiah Davis, James was accepted as part of the Deacon Ministry of Union Hill. He served as part of Deacon Ministry for seven years before accepting the call. Under the leadership of Reverend Thomas E. McCullers, James was licensed to preach the Good News on the 8th of January 2006.

To prepare himself to be able to serve James has studied and received his Associate degree in Theology in May 2011 from the New Grace Bible College in Rocky Mount, NC. Minister Taybron continues to work toward a Bachelor degree in Theology.

He has participated in Leadership conferences presented by The North Carolina General Baptist Convention and attend Ministers conferences at Shaw University to enhance his leadership skills.

Minister Taybron works as Production Manager at Suretech Assembly in Youngsville, NC. His thirty plus years of working in leadership in the business world have been driving factors in his life. He has made many friends as well as some enemies but through it all God has been in charge.

Minister Taybron is married to Doris Whitley Taybron. They have been happily married for 30 years. He is the proud father of Pierre and wife Lewanda Taybron; loving father of Megan and husband Rodricus Kornegay. Most recently he is a doting grandfather of Christina Arielle, the newest member of the Taybron family.

Minister's Taybron's motto echoes the words of Dr. Martin Luther King." If I can help someone as I pass long, then my living will not be in vain." His favorite scripture " I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me." (Philippians 4:13)
